

ServSafe Food Protection: Manager Certification Training

Marion Public Health is happy to offer the ServSafe Manager Level Food Safety classes in our building for 2023. The deadline to have at least one member of your facility certified in Food Safety Manager training was 6 years ago on March 1, 2017. While we encourage you to have multiple people receive this training and for all facilities in Marion, County the state of Ohio mandates that at least one person in a Risk Level 3 and 4 facilities have this certification. This training will provide you with 8 hours of classroom instruction on food safety. Once you receive a passing score on the exam, we will submit your results to the Ohio Department of Health and they will issue you an Ohio Certification stating you have been through the training.

If you currently have the Manager Certification Training completed, please make sure your proctor submitted your score to the Ohio Department of Health and that you received your Ohio Certification.
